Clinic Manager

Lindora

The Situation

Would you like to make a difference in the world, and help people improve their lives? Are you searching for a career—not just a "job?" Team Lindora is on the lookout for several caring, high energy, success-oriented Clinic Managers in Southern California (Orange County, Inland Empire, West LA).

Lindora’s mission is to make a positive difference in the health and the lives of as many people as possible by providing the most comprehensive weight control program available anywhere. They accomplish this mission through trained professionals who are dedicated to the principles of quality care, integrity and compassion.

The Position

The Clinic Managers oversee the day-to-day management of one clinic. They ensure the successful planning and delivery of services required to their patients. Their responsibilities also include sales and some administration.

The Company

When Marshall Stamper, M.D. decided to open a Newport Beach, CA weight loss clinic back in 1971, he had no way of knowing he would ultimately help thousands of people improve their health and change their lives.

Motivated by the loss of his mother who died of obesity-related complications, Dr. Stamper pioneered a comprehensive program that helped patients lose weight rapidly and safely. Lindora also teaches their patients how to change their physiology so they can maintain their healthy new weight.

Lindora currently has 34 medical clinics located throughout Southern California. Providing scientifically based, clinically effective programs that place the safety and success of the client first, Lindora has earned a high degree of credible recognition.

The Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidates will have effectively managed a business unit for 2-3 years. They will possess a firm grasp of Quality Service Standards for internal and external customers with an ability to plan, organize and schedule resources. They will be Windows literate. A current California nursing license is preferred. Successful sales management is important.

The Opportunity

Clinic Managers are very entrepreneurial. In this position they exercise their ability to manage operations, sales and personal relationships. This is an exciting opportunity to make a significant contribution in a highly visible role.

The Compensation

Lindora offers a competitive salary plus bonus and benefits.
